

Manager's Handbook

Article I. EGCLLA Coaches Responsibilities

- Section 1.01 Attend required meetings or send a representative to pick up the information.
- Section 1.02 Read all EGCLLA documentation; check your email and the EGCLLA website every day for the latest updates at: www.egclla.org
- Section 1.03 Be knowledgeable about baseball fundamentals and rules.
- Section 1.04 Appoint capable coaches who are knowledgeable about baseball fundamentals and rules, and who will assume the responsibilities of the Head Coach when he is absent.

Article II. Coaching Influence - "A Coach can influence more young people in one season than most people can in their entire lives."

- Section 2.01 Set an example of good sportsmanship and behavior for your players, coaches and fans.
- Section 2.02 You are responsible for the behavior of your players, coaches, and fans.
- Section 2.03 Poor sportsmanship and dishonorable behavior will not be tolerated.
- Section 2.04 No taunting of players or coaches is allowed.
- Section 2.05 Teach and stress sportsmanship, fair play, and teamwork abiding by the rules at all times.
- Section 2.06 Stress to players to hustle at all times so you don't waste time between innings.

Article III. Draft Leagues

- Section 3.01 Declare to your Division Chairman the players you are protecting.
- Section 3.02 Head coaches may protect a grand total of 5 players in all age groups (this includes assistant coaches kids and sponsor's kids).
- (a) This includes a sponsor's child if they specify before the draft or rosters are formed that they want a specific sponsor who has a child playing.
 - (b) This sponsor's child counts as one of the 5 protected players if he is protected before the draft takes place or the rosters are formed.
 - (c) If two coaches want to protect the same player, then the coach who had that player in the previous season gets priority.
 - (d) If neither of the two coaches had the player in the previous season, then a coin flip will determine who gets to protect the player. Therefore in future drafts the EGCLLA will not allow the coaches to agree to protect more than the allotted number of players as specified in the rules.

Manager's Handbook

Article VIII. Game Management

- Section 8.01 Enforce the "no soft toss hitting into fences" rule. This damages the fences.
- Section 8.02 Ensure that your players don't warm up, play catch, or swing bats where a spectator could be injured or a car could be damaged.
- Section 8.03 Ensure that each player that takes the field is in full uniform as issued by EGCLLA.
- (a) Ideally try to have all players with the same color socks, same color as uniform shirt.
- Section 8.04 Enforce no tobacco in the dugouts and on the field.
- Section 8.05 Be organized by game time with a completed lineup and an inning by inning breakdown of players by position. If this isn't done ahead of time too much time gets wasted between innings trying to set up the defense. Do this for your entire roster and if someone doesn't show up, it is very easy to simply fill in with a player that is not playing in that inning.
- (a) Time taken between innings to set the defense should be 1 to 2 minutes.
 - (b) Time limits must be enforced.
- Section 8.06 Coaches are NOT allowed to modify the rules set by the EGCLLA of their division for any game, although both coaches may agree to modifying a rule. Umpires are to enforce the rules set by the EGCLLA.
- Section 8.07 Keep dugouts clean. Pick up trash in dugouts after your game.
- Section 8.08 During the season if you are the last pitching machine game of the day, put the pitching machine away.
- Section 8.09 No hassling of umpires will be tolerated at any level.
- (a) If it occurs coaches and fans are subject to ejection from the park.
 - (b) If the ejected person does not abide by the umpire's request, the game will be forfeited.
 - (c) Any problems or comments concerning umpires should be forwarded to your division chairman.

Manager's Handbook

Article IX. After the Game

- Section 9.01 Report game results and rainouts as stated in the EGCLLA rules.
- Section 9.02 Contact your players about rainouts and makeup games.
- Section 9.03 Keep dugouts clean. Pick up trash in dugouts after your game.
- Section 9.04 Stress to your team to patronize our concession stands. They help fund our league.
- Section 9.05 Don't hassle the concession stand workers with complaints. They have nothing to do with running the league, they just work in the concession stands.
- (a) If you have a problem, contact your Division Chairman.

Article X. Game Results for Team Standings (Grades 3 - 12 only)

- Section 10.01 It is the winning coach's responsibility to enter game results on the Team Snap app. Score should be confirmed with opposing coach prior to submitting.

Article XI. Game Reports for the Edwardsville Intelligencer

- Section 11.01 It is the winning coach's responsibility to provide the game report to the Intelligencer or it will not appear in the paper. Write a short game summary including team names, score, and the names of players who performed well for both teams. Please be sure that you put the team sponsor's name in the paper correctly. Email the report to smarion@edwpub.net or you can also fax the game report to the Intelligencer at 659-1677 (Attention: Sports).

Article XII. Rainout Procedures During Game Schedule Only

- Section 12.01 Rainout information will be communicated through the League website Team Snap app.
- Section 12.02 If the field workers determine that the field is too wet, then they will let us know that the games are cancelled and you will be notified by email/text message. If it rains after they have prepped and left the field, then you may not receive a message. If you are not notified then you must assume that your game has NOT been cancelled.
- Section 12.03 Coaches must report all rainouts to your league chairman, he will keep track of them.
- (a) If you have more than 2 rainouts, then we will start making them up beginning with the first one. For example, after the 3rd rainout, then your 1st rainout will be rescheduled, and after the 4th rainout, then your 2nd rainout will be rescheduled and so on.

Manager's Handbook

Article XIII. End of Season
